1. Preparatory Classes: It is a maiden effort of the Institution to start off Preparatory Classes from 29/04/2017 for HS (Arts, Science & Commerce) without insisting on any kind of student fee. The prime objective behind the project was to introduce the students of the vicinity with the course material of all the respective streams. The enrolled students were facilitated with motivational classes besides offering them materials related to the course. It was an effective initiation as numerous students turned up to take the classes. After the completion of the programme on 29/04/2017 feedback was taken.

2. Ejak Junakir Jilikoni, a multidimensional forum conducted four programmes during the period with a purpose to explore and exhibits heterogeneous qualities latent in students. The first programme was conducted on 05/09/16 with the objective to enhance reading habit in students. Mr. Ashwini Gogoi, proprietor of "Bhalkhabar" (a daily) delivered a speech. The second programme was organized on 26/10/2016 on the theme of Performing Arts where student participants performed a drama. the third programme was conducted on 21/1/17 on career counselling. The S.D.O. (Civil) Margherita & Mr. Mahesh Saikia delivered speeches on the aforesaid dimension. the fourth programme that was conducted on 23/3/17 stressed on the essence of drama. Ms. Jharna Patgiri, Asst. Commissioner, Margherita) and Rajib Loshan Borah, an eminent dramatist encouraged the performers.

3. "A survey on Readership Awareness", a survey undertaken by the Dept. of English, Margherita College to to assess the reading habit of the teenagers at Margherita Sub-Division. Reading is practically a pre-requisite to the learning centric aptitude that targets the individuals capacity in cognition and acumen in learning habits. The first survey was undertaken by the Department on 26/05/2016 and targeted Patkai junior College. The impact of the invasion of mobile culture and social sites on reading habit has a disastrous consequence. Of course it is revealed that book-readers could avail themselves of required books as e-reading which is a positive sign among the teenagers.

4. . International Womens Day: On this special occasion, the women studies and development cell, Margherita College organised a programme to celebrate for every woman. With their kind and humble initiative, they brought out wall magazine ANANYA on this auspicious day i.e. 8th of March 2017. They also initiated to visit V.K.V as a target group and distributed books of women writers. It was a humble endeavour of the Cell to conduct such new events.
