EXPLANATION on CANCELLATION

1. Cancellation needs to be done by already admitted students before taking admission in the spot round when they are assured of a seat in the College/ University of their preference. No restoration will be allowed once the admission is cancelled by the student. Such students can use their existing login on assamadmission.samarth.ac.in and need not register again.
2. Students who could secure an admission in either of the rounds but still wish to take admission in another college or even in the same college under a different programme or major discipline, may also apply for more options in the spot round.
3. Students who have not secured admissions in the first and second round can participate in the spot admission round. All of their applications submitted prior to Spot admissions against which admissions are not yet granted in either of the Merit admission rounds shall be considered for spot round as well. If the students want to make any changes to their application or apply in more colleges/programme they may either edit their existing applications or freshly apply for more colleges/programmes, provided they have not exhausted all ten options. Such students can use their existing login on assamadmission.samarth.ac.in and need not register again.
4. Students can apply for ten options. In case they have already filled all ten forms, they may discard any of the application and fill out a new application/form for the college/programme/major of their choice.

For Colleges/Universities

1. Processing Admissions

1. The college/University will adhere to the established procedures for academic scrutiny.
2. They can grant admission to students only after thoroughly reviewing the applications and marking them as “Accepted” at both the Academic Scrutiny and Final Scrutiny levels.
3. Colleges/Universities are not required to “Process Merit List” for the Spot Admission Round.
4. College/University may “Process Admissions” in the same manner as they did in previous rounds subject to seat availability.
5. In case of applications under Local quota (Fringe Village quota)/ CCA (Co-Curricular Activity quota)/ Sports quota/ Ward (Employee quota), the Institution will follow their notified policy, for granting admissions.
6. Upon grant of admission, if the Colleges/Universities have collected the notified admission fees outside the integrated payment gateway, then upon cancellation of admission granted, they should mandatorily refund the full amount to the applicant, so that the candidate does not face any difficulty in taking admission in the other Institution.
7. All relevant rules and University guidelines followed during Merit round admissions are to be followed in due Academic Scrutiny and Document verification. There should not be any deviation whatsoever from the University guidelines, as applicable.
8. No deserving applicants with higher merit score are to be denied admission on account of filling up of seats by the applicants with lower merit score.

2. It is mandatory for the Universities/Colleges to ensure the following:

1. Publication of the Spot admission policy on the Institution’s website.
2. Compliance with the Institutional Spot admission policy, as notified.
3. Publish a helpline number for Spot admission
4. Set up an admission and counselling help desk for subject (Major and Minor discipline) change post-admission.
5. Wide publicity of the College/University’s Spot admission policy amongst students.
6. To ensure that Spot Admissions are done smoothly and transparently.

DISCLAIMER:

Neither the Higher Education Department, Assam nor SAMARTH e-Gov suite shall be responsible for any grievances from candidates regarding the admission policy, merit criteria, and admission rules followed by the Higher Educational Institutions during the admission process.
